

Australian Tax Deductibility

To Australian donors; all the work that ARMS does to help others within Australia is tax deductible. Simply donate and request a tax deductible receipt. You can even direct the funds you give to a specific project or need. Some of which include;

- ARMS - National Office Support
- Australian Mercy Fund
- Community Development Project For Needy Families - Perth
- Community Outreach Program - Melbourne
- Family Counselling Clinic. – Canberra
- RescueNet
- Where Most Needed.

Overseas Projects

Not all of ARMS overseas projects have been give tax deductible status by the Australian Tax Office. At this time the following projects qualify as tax deductible.

- Burmese IDP Project - Thailand / Burma
- Hekan Housing Project - East Timor
- Home Of The Open Heart / Aids Baby Project - Thailand
- Karen Preschool Project - Thailand
- Reverse The Curse Landmine Project - Cambodia
- Tsunami Relief

At this time donations made to other projects than those listed here do not attract tax deductibility for Australian donors.

Cheques can be sent to;
